

// 86% of business professionals believe they are effective communicators...
Only 17% of their audiences agreed. The Leader's Voice – Clarke and Crossland

The Art of the High Stakes Presentation

Helping you better leverage every important presentation opportunity

Whether you're presenting to major customers, employees, strategic partners or internal stakeholders, the stakes associated with failing to build essential credibility or articulating your important message are often far reaching. During this small group coaching workshop, participants will receive personalized instruction on essential delivery skills, crisp presentation message development approaches and finally, personal communication and storytelling insights to help you drive your key messages deeper. Attendees will receive up to 5 videotaped coaching experiences during the training day along with individualized guidance from a professional presentation coach.

//

Learning so much about yourself in one day is an amazing feeling! Recent workshop attendee

Group size:	10-12 attendees
Skill area:	Presentation skills professional development
Approach:	Videotaped coaching workshop with personalized instruction and interactive group discussions
Duration:	One-day workshop format (Typically 8am – 5pm)

Here's how Distinction can give you an important edge in your high stakes presentation opportunities

- Leverage strategic eye communication to build greater trust and believability with audiences.
- Master more purposeful and relaxed movement to create a stronger personal presence.
- Learn what makes a good story and how to integrate them at strategic times.
- Use more meaningful gestures to create stronger emphasis to key points and ideas.
- Learn the "power of the pause" to create emphasis at critical times.
- Discover a powerful 7-step model for shaping presentation messages that win hearts and minds.
- Learn the strategic skill of talking to the 'essence of the slide', instead of simply bullet reading.
- Discover your default communication style & how to adapt it for greater influence and impact

You also can get these valuable post-training support tools...

The Digital Coach™ podcasts available at no additional charge to all Distinction trainees.

The Digital Coach™ Personal Video Review, a post-training follow-up tool, is available for an additional fee.

The Mark of Distinction quarterly eNewsletter provides resources, refreshers and tips for the presenting professional.

For more information on how Distinction can give you greater confidence & credibility, contact us today

www.distinction-services.com/foundational.html

Distinction

www.distinction-services.com

Where story & storyteller drive ideas and information!

503.554.1203